Cookies notice

At Irwell Valley Consultancy Ltd, we do not track our visitors' usage of our site, nor do we collect any of our visitors' data.

Our website uses the WordPress.org content management system, which uses a cookie simply to determine if a user is a new or returning visitor.

What is a cookie?

A cookie is a simple text file specific to your browser which is created on your computer or device when visiting a website. It is only read by this website and contains anonymous information such as a unique identifier, the site name and some digits and numbers.

You may disable cookies in your browser's settings if you find these to be intrusive. However please be aware that this would affect your ability to use websites with shopping baskets or user accounts.
